Sanford Burnham Prebys is dedicated to understanding human disease and advancing discoveries to profoundly impact human health.

BreakthroughDiscoveries

40+ years of pioneering research

Deep expertise in cancer, neuroscience, immunology and rare children’s diseases

A world class NCI-designated Cancer Center
One of only 7 basic research centers in the U.S. (since 1981)

InnovativeScience

Top 2% of research institutions worldwide based on citations per paper

243 peer-reviewed papers published in 2019

#6 in the nation for the Nature Index of nonprofit/non-government institutions in biomedical science

1,066 patents, 35 startups from Sanford Burnham Prebys innovations

TrainingNextGenerationScientists

Our graduate school is recognized for customized curriculum and accelerated time-to-degree in less than 5 years

More than 350 postdocs, graduate students and interns mentored per year

Trainees pursue a wide-range of careers in biotech, academia and research

StrategicPartnerships

Advancing our discoveries to the clinic

DevelopingPrototypeDrugs

One of the most advanced nonprofit drug discovery centers in the world

Industry-trained personnel have a track record of discovering and developing novel therapeutics

60+ Drug discovery projects

Over $100M of translational science grants in last 5 years

10 Clinical trials underway

7 FDA-approved treatments and tests

Profile

Total Headcount: 689

Faculty: 43

Postdoctoral Researchers: 110

Graduate Students: 29

Scientific Staff: 347

Administrative Staff: 160

FY 2019

Top 3 of all independent research institutes ranked by NIH funding

Other Grants: 4%

Licensing & Other: 8%

BioPharma Partnerships: 8%

Philanthropy: 22%

Federal Grants: 58%

Sanford Burnham Prebys is an independent 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in La Jolla, California.

$117M Annual Revenue

Updated April 6, 2020